Explicit notation module prototype

Here, insertion sort means Mathlib's insertion sort on lists of natural numbers, using ascending order. This explanation is authored in the specimen; automatic definition sections are future work.

Result 1 (insertion sort preserves length). [Mathlib]
Let xs be a list with entries in $\mathbb{N}$. Then

$$|\text{insertion sort of } xs| = |xs|.$$